Notes/Disclaimers	This is the first election for rural councils of Malacca (Alor Gajah Rural District Council, Malacca Tengah Rural District Council and Jasin Rural District Council). Candidate spelling follows the nomination day. Jasin Rural District Council is composed of a Chairman (who is the District Officer), 18 councillors (elected) and no more than 3 councillors appointed by the Resident Commissioner. Different wards have different numbers of elected councillors. Some rules about tenure and election terms of councillors for Jasin are as follows - (1) At the first election eighteen Councillors shall be elected. (2) At the first election after the coming into force of this Constitution one Councillor in each electoral ward shall retire, that is to say the Councillor who polled the least number of votes: Provided that in the case of the electoral wards of Jasin Town, Merlimau and Sungei Rambai, two Councillors in each of these wards shall retire, that is to say the two Councillors who polled the least number of votes; and Provided further that in the case of an equality of votes between Councillors or where an election has not been contested or if any doubt arises, the order of retirement shall be determined by lot at the first meeting of the Council and the drawing shall be conducted under the direction of the Chairman. Councillors shall hold office for a period of four years, and one-half of the whole number of elected Councillors, being those who have been Councillors for the longest period without re-election, shall at the expiry of their four year term of office retire on the date of the holding of the biennial election. At each biennial election, a Councillor shall be elected to fill the seat of each elected Councillor which is rendered vacant by reason of the retirement of such Councillor in accordance with the provisions of this Part. For Alor Gajah Rural District Council, it is composed of the Chairman (who is a District Officer), 17 councillors (elected), and not more than 3 councillors appointed by the Resident Commissioner. Different wards have different number of elected councillors. Below here are selected rules for tenure and election of councillors of Alor Gajah Council - (1) At the first election seventeen Councillors shall be elected. (2) At the first election after the coming into force of this Constitution, one Councillor in each electoral ward shall retire, that is to say the Councillor who polled the least number of votes: Provided that in the case of the electoral wards of Pegoh, Simpang Ampat and Lubok China, the Councillor elected to these respective wards shall not so retire;

Provided further that in the case of the electoral wards of Tanjong Rimau and Durian Tunggal, two Councillors in each of these wards shall retire, that is to say the two Councillors who polled the least number of votes; and

Provided further that in the case of an equality of votes between Councillors or where an election has not been contested or if any doubt arises, the order of retirement shall be determined by lot at the first meeting of the Council and the drawing shall be conducted under the direction of the Chairman.

Councillors shall hold office for a period of four years, and one-half of the whole number of elected councillors, being those who have been Councillors for the longest period without re-election, shall at the expiry of their four-year term of office retire on the date of the holding of the biennial election.

At each biennial election, a Councillor shall be elected to fill the seat of each elected Councillor which is rendered vacant by reason of the retirement of such Councillor in accordance with the provisions of this Part.

For Malacca Tengah Rural District Council, there is a Chairman (who is the District Officer), 19 councillors (elected) and not more than 3 councillors appointed by Resident Commissioner. Different wards have different number of elected councillors. Below here are selected rules for tenure and election of councillors -

(1) At the first election nineteen Councillors shall be elected.

(2) At the first biennial election after the coming into force of this Constitution, one Councillor in each electoral ward shall retire, that is to say the Councillor who polled the least number of votes in each electoral ward:

Provided that in the case of the electoral wards of Ayer Molek and Bukit Baru the Councillor elected to these respective wards shall not so retire;

Provided further that in the case of the electoral ward of Krubong, two Councillors shall retire, that is to say the two Councillors who polled the least number of votes; and

Provided further that in the case of an equality of votes between Councillors or where an election has not been contested or if any doubt arises, the order of retirement shall be determined by lot at the first meeting of the Council and the drawing shall be conducted under the direction of the Chairman.

Councillors shall hold office for a period of four years, and one-half of the whole number of elected Councillors, being those who have been Councillors for the longest period without re-election, shall at the expiry of their four year term of office retire on the date of the holding of the biennial election.
